

Montréal, September 25th, 2024 – The Château Ramezay – Historic Site and Museum of Montréal is pleased to present a new temporary exhibition this fall. Come discover the history and legacy of Canadian women, past and present, by visiting Homage: Inspired by outstanding Canadian women, presented from September 28, 2024 to February 9, 2025. The Museum is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The exhibition Homage: Inspired by outstanding Canadian women is a national travelling collection of 41 necklaces presented for the first time in Quebec. Designed to celebrate and honour Canadian women from all eras and regions of the country, these necklaces represent a wide variety of professions and contributions to our society.

Necklaces evoke style, status and wealth; they are archetypal symbols of power and importance. For the artist, these jewels are therefore the ideal vehicles to represent the important women in Canadian history.

Created by renowned jewelry artist Donald Stuart, CM, OOnt, RCA, the necklaces are accompanied by sketches drawn by the curator of the exhibition, Susan Benson, CM, RCA, and short biographies, allowing the viewer to explore these personal stories from a new perspective.

About

*The Château Ramezay – Historic Site and Museum of Montréal, located in the heart of Old Montreal, is a non-profit organization that safeguards and makes accessible a collection that reflects and attests to the history of Montréal, Quebec and Canada. It was the first building in Quebec to be classified an historic monument and is the province's oldest private historical museum.
